Please write your resume and credentials vm@appraiservendor.com For over 10 years, AppraiserVendor a leading provider of national valuation and management solutions, providing products and services to the quality and integrity of residential real estate industry. For over 10 years, AppraiserVendor has been a leading provider of national valuation and management solutions, providing products and quality and integrity services to the residential mortgage industry. Founded by appraisers who are tired of AMC's relentless practices and abuse, our founders set out to create a firm that valued the appraiser's relationship as much as the clients, and to review the evaluation management. AppraiserVendor understands the need for an appraisal management company that brings experience, innovation and exemplary service to its processes and procedures, which is crucial to the view of the level of service to lenders, regulators and, most importantly, consumers. Our success is the result of our expertise, accountability and partnership with our suppliers, as well as our commitment to quality through technology, staff and panel education. Recognized several times by Mortgage Executive Magazine as one of the 50 largest mortgage service providers in the country, AppraiserVendor works very hard to improve quality at the core by properly managing the provider by putting a great emphasis on partnership throughout the process, working with those appraisers that we have come to trust and trust them by giving them the autonomy to do their job. Experience innovative service We recognize each customer has individual goals and needs, and strives to provide a unique and individual solution to their fulfillment. It is these attributes and our commitment to excellence that enable us to ensure impartial, compatible and timely delivery of products to our customers with uncompromising quality. As a result, the appraiser Vendor has earned a reputation as Rethinking Evaluation Management. Behind any good organization is dedicated staff! We are as good as our people... That's why we are staffed by our team with appraisers, apprentices and industry professionals committed to supporting our customers and their consumers, and. Under the guidance of an executive team with more than 50 years of assessment management experience, our employees are willing and willing to deal with any obstacles that come our way. Aaron was born and raised in Greenwood, New York. After joining the U.S. Army, Aaron proudly served our country for 11 years in which he completed a tour of service in Iraq. Aaron left the U.S. Army in 1997 and immediately began his real estate career with certification and discovery, ownership and management of the Indiana Appraisal Group. Recognizing the importance of appraisal management companies in residential valuation area, as well as using his business/management acumen and 10 years of experience in the appraisal industry, Aaron founded AppraiserVendor in 2007. He and his partner, Jeff Souter, started a business platform. Aaron continues to serve as President, CEO and Chief Appraiser in using industry professionals to service lenders, banks, brokers and credit unions across the country. Teh Teh The commitment, dedication and leadership Aaron has shown his country continues in his approach to AppraiserVendor. Using his drive, leadership skills and assessment experience, Aaron drew on his communication with clients who require accurate, timely and compatible assessments and, as a result, takes an active position in lobbying for evaluation management. His influence has influenced his colleagues and direct reporting and focuses on driving change and instilling integrity in the industry. Born and raised in Greenwood, Illinois, Jeff graduated from Indiana University - Bloomington, earning a degree in marketing and economics from the School of Business. Jeff has been working in management and leadership positions in IT/software development, web development, real estate and AMC for more than 20 years. Prior to His tenure at AppraiserVendor, Jeff was CEO of Web-Pros, a national web development company that manages more than 400 clients. In addition, Jeff was the founder and CEO of REO Oasis, a real estate software company whose revolutionary platform helped REO's banking and real estate professionals in real estate management. Jeff's proven track record of leading companies in the start-up, survival, turnaround, and growth phases has helped shape AppraiserVendor's strategic initiatives since 2007. For this pursuit of excellence, Jeff was the recipient of the Indianapolis Top 40 Under 40 Executive Achievement Award. Jeff currently serves as a partner, CFO and CEO at AppraiserVendor. Steve earned a degree in public administration with a focus on organizational development at San Diego State University in San Diego, California. As a result of an initiative of a professional with a command-and-control mentality, he began his career in evaluation management in 2001 with oversight operations and performance for employees of 80 employees serving several of the largest lenders in the country, including Chase, U.S. Bank, and a number of others. As a driving force in the development and implementation of regulatory compliance, quality control, automation and workflow efficiency, Steve's approach to business and human resources management led to a rapid upturn in the evaluation industry, taking on his first executive role in 2007. Using his business acumen and leadership experience, Steve uses his knowledge and practice in several areas of real estate, including real estate management, finance, product/system development and sales, to become a recognized leader in management and evaluation. With a proven track record of implementing the necessary strategies for business development and growth, compliance monitoring, automation and workflow efficiency in a highly competitive, regulated and unstable industry, Steve strives to achieve results by maintaining a reputation built on character, service and Ethics. Steve joined AppraiserVendor in January 2017 and joins his experienced team and management staff, which has led to immediate results in the efficiency, growth and development of systems. Getting together is just the beginning. Staying together is progress. Working together is a success. Founded by appraisers and led by industry experts with more than 50 years of valuation management, AppraiserVendor was founded with the basic principle that all partners are equal in the eyes of our employees; creditors and appraisers alike. In an industry where one success is based on the opinion of another, effectively managing this dynamic can be challenging and where most have failed, AppraiserVendor has succeeded. A concept that avoids most AMC, but one that has served us well in providing exceptional services to our customers and their consumers. Partnerships in an industry where relationships matter is the power of partnerships that we cultivate that lead us all to continuous success. Stay calm, we'll keep you compatible! The Appraiser Vendor understands that keeping up with the ever-changing regulatory landscape of our industry is critical to the survival of the mortgage business. Our entire implementation process is designed with on-site monitoring to ensure that we exceed all state and federal regulatory requirements, including independence assessment requirements, as well as all other federal and all state regulations. The Ravenor appraiser is committed to delivering quality and integrity products and services that are free from undue influence. As a company owned and operated by appraisers, AppraiserVendor is a proponent of reasonable and routine fee compensation and believes that this is necessary for the sustainability not only of our company, but also of the appraisal industry. Reasonable and ordinary fee compensation ensures that we will retain the most competent appraisers on the market. If you believe that the appraiser's independence has been compromised, or undue influence or pressure has been placed on the appraiser in completing the assignment for the Ravenor Appraiser, you can report any violations in appraiserindependence@appraiservendor.com, or call 888-418-2676 and contact our compliance department. Alliances and partnerships provide stability when they reflect realities and interests. AppraiserVendor collaborates with several reputable organizations, ranging from data providers to local real estate colleges, that serve to enhance the experience of our partners throughout the execution process. As an appraisal management company, our partners and appraisers are a direct reflection of the Vendore Appraiser, which is very similar to the dynamics between lender and consumer; We strive to represent our partners by providing products and services of quality and integrity for each transaction.
